

Dr Martin Cole
National President
The Institution of Engineers,
Australia

Dr Roy Green, AO
President
Murray-Darling Basin
Commission

are pleased to invite

.....Mr Michael Clark.....

to a ceremony for the declaration of the Engineering Works of the River Murray

as a

National Engineering Landmark

and the unveiling of plaques

2pm, Thursday

25 October 2001

Hume Dam, via Albury, NSW

RSVP 19 October 2001

Dianne

Phone 02 6279 0156

Fax 02 6230 6005

E-mail dianne.robinson@rmw.mdbc.gov.au

Centenary of Federation of Australia

2001

The Engineering Works of the River Murray

An official ceremony to commemorate the Engineering Works of the River Murray as a National Engineering Landmark

HUME DAM

25 October 2001

Commencing 2.00pm

PROGRAM

Master of Ceremonies

Mr David Dole
General Manager, River Murray Water
Murray-Darling Basin Commission

Welcome

Mr Ross Barrie
Manager Asset Services, State Water
Department of Land and Water Conservation, NSW

Mr Ian Howley
Manager Headworks
Goulburn-Murray Water

The Heritage Significance of the Engineering Works of the River Murray

Dr Martin Cole
National President
The Institution of Engineers, Australia

The Economic and Social Significance of the Engineering Works of the River Murray

Dr Roy Green, AO
President
Murray-Darling Basin Commission

Unveiling of Plaques

Close of Official Ceremony

Followed by light refreshments